

-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

Mountain Pacific Bank Adds To Management Team

April Hogan Appointed New Retail Banking Manager

Everett, Washington, January 28, 2016 – Mountain Pacific Bank announced today that April Hogan has joined the company as Senior Vice President, Retail Banking Manager. Ms. Hogan will be responsible for all aspects of the sales, service, marketing, and operation of the bank retail channels.

Mountain Pacific Bank President and CEO Mark Duffy commented, "I'm thrilled to have someone with April's depth of experience and range of skills join us. Her understanding and connections within our market and proven ability to grow and develop business relationships, adds a new dimension to our management team that will be important for our next phase of growth."

Ms. Hogan began her banking career in 1994 with City Bank, where she successfully held numerous positions of increasing responsibility and oversight. Ms. Hogan continued her banking career with Whidbey Island Bank and most recently Heritage Bank, where she was named 2014 Community Banker of the Year.

Ms. Hogan is a graduate of the Snohomish County Leadership program and is currently attending the Pacific Coast Banking School. Ms. Hogan is very actively involved in the community, as she currently serves on the Boards of multiple organizations, which include but not limited to the Edmonds Community College Foundation, Edmonds Public School Foundation, Work Opportunities, and Leadership Snohomish County.

Mountain Pacific Bank recently relocated its Ballard Branch and added two new commercial lenders to support the banks' growth plans.

About Mountain Pacific Bank:

Mountain Pacific Bank is a full-service community bank, serving the financial needs of local businesses, professionals, and individuals in Snohomish County. The bank is headquartered in Everett, Washington and operates branch offices in Everett and Lynnwood, plus a Mobile Branch for the convenience of its customers. More information about Mountain Pacific can be found at www.mountainpacificbank.com.

Contact:

Mark Duffy, President/CEO
(425) 263-3524

